

COVID-19 ECONOMIC SUPPORT MEASURES | NT

Economic Support Measure	Summary of Government Assistance
The NT Government has a number of COVID-19 economic support measures. The Federal Government may declare any otherwise assessable grants included in these packages to be tax-free At this stage applications to these support measures have generally closed.	The most recent support measures included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Territory Business Lockdown Payment – $1,000 grants for lock down and extended closure payment.▪ Business Hardship Package providing payroll tax, council rate, rent and utilities concessions.▪ Not-for-profit Tourism Attraction Payment – Business grants of between $2,000 to $20,000.▪ Trade Support Scheme – COVID-19 Quick response grants for grants of up to $5,000.

More information is available via the NT's Business grants and funding NT.GOV.AU page.

Updated: 16/8/21